

The U.S. Embassy in Lusaka is soliciting proposals for anti-trafficking in persons projects. The Embassy will consider projects that advance and strengthen the criminal justice system's response to trafficking in persons. The Embassy will also consider projects that improve victim care, expand shelter capacity, support public awareness campaigns, assist with victim rehabilitation and reintegration, and increase government and non-governmental capacity to fight trafficking. Projects may be for bilateral or regional programs. All projects must have a strong anti-trafficking focus.

Project proposals must contain the following:

- A. Title of project
- B. Name of recipient organization/government agency
- C. Duration of project and whether project is new or ongoing.
- D. Description of project, including objectives, activities and sustainability.
- E. Project justification.
- F. Evaluation plan.
- G. Budget breakout. (Suggested total budget: 50-250K USD)
- H. Government or others funds supporting project, if any.

Project proposals should be submitted to the U.S. Embassy Lusaka, Political/Economic Section, no later than January 28, 2006. Proposals may be submitted by hard copy or e-mailed to marcusgr@state.gov
